GENERAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Persons to be formally and publicly recognized in the SAHF must have, in the course of their residence in Saskatchewan, made significant contributions to the welfare and improvement of Saskatchewan Agriculture, and to a better way of life for the farm family.
- Candidates for induction must have made unique contributions beyond the local level. The acts for which they are recognized must have benefited farm families on a Provincial level at least. National or International contributions enhance eligibility.
- This form must be used for nominations, and may have additional support letters attached. Please provide a list of possible sponsors to cover the cost of the $1500.00 Induction Fee. The fee covers the cost of the induction respecting such things as the artist's fee, framing, printing, preparation of the citation plaque, mounting the portrait and plaque in the museum, hall upkeep, preparation of the historical record books, inductee's complimentary tickets to the induction ceremony, program brochures and correspondence regarding the induction ceremony. Please do not advise the nominee of your application to avoid disappointment if not approved.
- Nominations will be kept on file and reconsidered for up to two additional years. The nominator may submit additional information prior to the September 1st deadline in each of the subsequent two years. After being considered for three years, a new application will be required.
- Nominations must be received by September 1 to be evaluated for the following year.
